Ziepod Free For PC

Ziepod is an useful and easy-to-use toolkit utility that can reach and manage audio-based content published through podcasts. It feeds you voice of people from all around the world by bringing what people talks through podcasts right in front of you. You can easily subscribe to podcasts and get notified of new episodes, directly listen to episodes or download them for your MP3 player, search episodes on the Internet fast without touching your browser. Here are some key features of "Ziepod":

- Stream Podcasts or Download Them Ziepod is not only a tool to download podcast episodes, you can also listen to podcasts without having to download them, which is called streaming. By streaming a podcast episode first, you can learn what it is about and then download it, if it is worth.
- Search podcast epsisodes on the Internet via Feedzie.com From inside Ziepod, you can search hundreds of thousands of audio and video episodes published on the Internet via Feedzie.com. You can even save search results into your Ziepod, download or directly listen to found episodes via Ziepod.
- Find quality podcasts by browsing Feedzie Podcast Directory Feedzie.com hosts a podcast directory, where podcasts are grouped into major categories and tagged with informative labels in order to enhance navigation functionality. You can browse this directory from inside Ziepod and easily subscribe to quality podcasts.
- Different Visual Modes In order to enhance the user interface, Ziepod can be transformed into different shapes. Based on what you are using Ziepod for at the time, you can simplify its look and focus on that.
- Sweeping Unnecessary Items at Once Ziepod helps you maintain the environment you have by providing sweeping functionality. This powerful filtering mechanism allows you to define what you like to delete and then traverses all your subscriptions to remove unnecessary items at once.
- Automated & Manual ID3 Tag Overwriting ID3 Tags are extra information embedded inside MP3 files, which are related to spoken content. That's how your MP3 player shows the title of playing item on the screen. You can make Ziepod automatically assign values, which is especially helpful if you don't like to see meaningless title on your MP3 player, because Ziepod can make it show actual title and help you identify playing item easily.
- iPod Support You can
