He graduated with honors from the University of California, San Diego in 2001. While at UCSD, Diego was a part of the Honors Program for the nursing curriculum and was also a co-founding member of the Lambda Theta Pi fraternity. After graduation, Diego accepted a full-time position at the San Diego Union-Tribune. While there, Diego wrote and produced several local news stories and documentaries and worked as a producer, editor, and assistant director. Diego is certified in both medical (LN) and surgical (MS) and has recently been accepted into the School of Nursing at the University of California, San Diego. Diego enjoys and excels at being a healthcare advocate and is well-known for being able to connect with and inspire others to be well informed. Diego's Goal: To educate and empower others to take the best care of themselves. To be the best nurse, parent, and grandparent. Approach: Diego recognizes that the first step in achieving his goals is to educate himself. He plans on acquiring all of his necessary knowledge from research, attending continuing education, or through practice. Diego will utilize the resources available to him to learn more about his career choice, as well as create a comprehensive plan to continue his education. Diego's Philosophy: Be the best at what you do. Be the best. Be the best. Diego's story: I have always been an extremely independent person. I knew I wanted to go to college and major in nursing and I knew that I wanted to do that after high school. In high school, I attended a small private Catholic school where my goal was to get into a great college to get into a 4 year degree program. My family wasn't really big on money and I had a high GPA so I wasn't able to receive a full
