Mobile Home As with any type of home, mobility will always be a consideration when buying a mobile home. However, there are certain factors that you must consider before making the big investment. Even more important than where you will move to is where you will live as a mobile home is built to be moved. The location of the mobile home is a big factor in determining the quality and safety of your home. If you decide to move to a mobile home park that is a good distance away from your home, you run the risk of taking on jobs that take you out of your home a lot of time. As you can imagine, the more time that you spend
